

Dear Veteran,

Thank you for fighting for us. Thank you for fighting in other countries to help them gain freedom. In class, we read a poem called, "Why Wear a Poppy," and we learned that we wear a poppy to remember the brave soldiers that fought in war. We watched a clip called, "A Poppy is to Remember," which showed how scary it was to be in war. We are had an assembly on November 7th. We sang, "What a Wonderful World," at the Remembrance Day Assembly.

Our class is very sad that some people died. I think that you were sad when your friends died. We listened to a song that is called, "A Pittance of Time." We watched a clip of soldiers marching.

We read a story about the Peace Tower. I learned that the Book of Remembrance is in the Peace Tower. The Book of Remembrance has the names of soldiers that were killed in war. I feel sorry for the soldiers' families that did not come back. In the book we learned how hard it was for soldiers returning home from war.

Thank you for keeping our country safe and free.

Yours Truly,

Anna
