

Dear Veteran,

We had a Remembrance Day Ceremony on November 7th. We sang, "What a Wonderful World," by Louis Armstrong.

We read a story called, "A Poppy is to Remember," and a poem that is called, "In Flanders Fields."

Thank you for fighting for freedom and keeping us safe.

Was it scary when you were in war? I think it would be scary for me.

We made a wreath for Remembrance Day. The junior high did a light play about Remembrance Day. Also, the play was about a girl wondering why we celebrate Remembrance Day.

In class I learned that soldiers fought on the ground, in the water, and in the sky.

Yours Truly,

Anna
