

Always & Forever

Dear Veteran,

My friends and I made an enormous wreath for Remembrance Day. We watched a clip called, "A Poppy Is To Remember," which shows how scary it must be to fight in war. We saw graves of soldiers, guns, tanks. What a terrible thing to go through. In class we read a poem called, "Why Wear A Poppy", and we learned we wear a poppy to remember the brave soldiers who fought in war. We are read a poem called, "In Flanders Fields," by John McCrae. His poem was read far and wide.

When the war finally ended on November 11, 1918, people everywhere celebrated the return to peace.

We read, " A Poppy is to Remember, " the soldiers far from home, crossing troubled lands, and threatening waters, and dangerous skies . It is for the wounded and those who cared for them. It is for the dead and those who carried on without them.

Thank you for keeping our country safe.

Yours Truly,

Let us forget Remembrance Day

*We Shall not forget Anny
the sacrifices you have made for our country*
