

Always & Forever

Dear Veteran,

We thank you for fighting for freedom and for saving our country. We sang, "What a wonderful world" by Louis Armstrong at our school remembrance day ceremony. A lot of people came and listened to the performances. We watched a show called, "black light drama". all the lights were truned off and we couldn't see anything except the poppies on the stage.

We learned many soldiers went to war and never came back, but a few were lucky and retruned home to their family. Did any of your friends come back home? did you have any friends in war that died? I wouldn't be superised if you said yes. were you sad when one your firend died?

In class we read a book called, "a poppy is to remember," we leanred how hard it is for soldiers to retrun home from war. We read a poem called, "why wear a poppy." when we were done we learned that we wear a poppy to remember the brave soldiers. we read a poem called in "flanders field" by john mc crae we leared that john mc crae wrote the poem after his firend died.

Yours Truly,

Helena
