

NEVER FORGET

Dear Veteran,

Thank you for keeping our country safe that there are no guns, bombs, and machine guns. Thank you for fighting for peace and freedom.

We watched a clip called, "A Poppy is to Remember." and it seemed to be very scary to be in war. We read a book called, "In Flanders Fields." We had to sing, "What A Wonderful World," by Louis Armstrong at the Remembrance Day Ceremony. My brother was in black light drama when all the lights in the gym were off. Everything else the poppy, cross, and doves glowed in the black light. The Grade Five sang, "It's a Pittance of Time." John McCrae wrote, "In Flanders Fields because his friend died in war. I feel sorry for all the brave soldiers who died in war. After we read the story called, "A Poppy is to Remember," we learned that we wear a poppy to remember the brave soldiers who died in war.

I think it would be scary to fight in war.

Yours Truly,
Jacob
